

TONIGHT

LaGrange Mayor Jim Thornton to Host Town Hall Meetings March 12th and 19th, Health Department Officials to Answer Questions About Coronavirus

LaGrange, Ga. March 12, 2020 - LaGrange Mayor Jim Thornton is hosting two town hall meetings, the first meeting will be tonight.

The purpose of the meetings is to inform the public of ongoing city projects and hear concerns or suggestions from the citizens.

As part of these meetings, the city will have District 4 Health Director Dr. Olugbenga Obasanjo on hand to answer any questions or concerns about the coronavirus. City Council members and city staff will also be available to answer questions.

These meetings are free and open to the public. If anyone chooses not to attend, the city will broadcast the meetings live on Facebook at www.facebook.com/lgtv.org/.

The two meetings will be held Thursday, March 12th at LaGrange High School and Thursday, March 19th at Great Wolf Lodge. Both meetings will begin at 6:00 p.m.